

Home Based Business Weekend September 18-19, 2010

The Columbia Mall is holding a home based business weekend to give businesses a chance to sell, recruit and/or promote their line of products.

In the interest of promoting local businesses we are sending you this invitation to participate in our upcoming Home Based Business Weekend.

We would like to have all branches of Home Businesses covered. However, in order to maximize your profits and recruiting abilities, we are accepting businesses on a first come first served basis. The first to send in their registration and money will be the contact for that businesses representation. After that, all of the other people in that branch of business will be forwarded to contact that first person. We are hoping that you will find this a fair way to have your company represented. We had a terrific turn out in 2009 with over 17 vendors participating.

If you are interested please fill out the attached registration form along with a non-refundable (unless show is cancelled) $75.00 advertising fee made payable to "Cedar-Bloomsburg, LLC" NO LATER THAN September 1, 2010 and send to:
